Introduction:

Ladies and gentlemen, we have with us Maurice Ellison, "The Mind Transformer", who is one of today's most down to earth and thought provoking Inspirational Speakers. .

Maurice is very passionate about helping others reach their goals and dreams in life. He is here to propel some, enlighten others and take each of us to new levels of greatness.

At age 8, he was labeled "LD" (Learning Disabled) and carried this label throughout his school years. Today he is a successful entrepreneur with a background in sales, video production and photography.

Maurice is building an international speaking career that is influencing the minds of thousands and touching the hearts of everyone he comes in contact with.

A Native of North Carolina, Maurice is married and has three children.

Remember a great speaker and a great audience creates the atmosphere for a great program. Now ladies, gentleman, students and staff lets give a warm welcome to Professional Speaker, Author and Empowerment Mentor....
