THE BIOGRAPHY OF:

Maurice has taken a stand against mediocrity as he moves into greatness! Born and raised in Eastern North Carolina, he's the youngest of seven children. He is currently married and has three children of his own.

Without any formal education beyond high school, Maurice has learned how to tap into his God given talents. His work ethics are relentless and has transformed him from a farm laborer into a successful business man seeing his dreams become a reality.

Maurice has been in the photography and video production industries for over twenty-two years. He founded and was CEO of M. R. E. Network Christian Television Station.

Today Maurice is the CEO of A Spoken Vision LLC., a communication company that provides keynote speaking, seminars and marketing development. The main focus of the company is to promote self esteem and skills development for all types of people and organizations.

Maurice also offers individual consulting that involves every aspect of life. His firm offers educational training tools to show individuals how to rejuvenate one's spirit, amplify one's ability to succeed through persistence, and self determination.....
